Collabowriting

CORNUCOPIA WRITERS

Aim to be clear, imaginative, and engaging. Use the back of this sheet for planning. Assume your reader is tired. Outside resources are not allowed.

Name	ID				Signature
	1	2	3	A

Topic 1

☐ Certain patterns in society, such as fashion trends or stock markets, exhibit cyclical behaviour. What is another "cycle" that is significant to you?
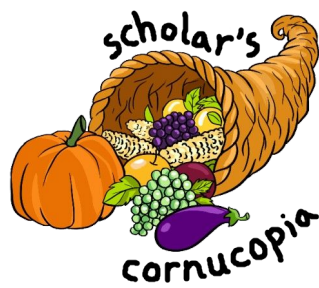

Topic 2

☐ What would life be like if the Internet was never invented?

Topic 3

☐ Some people paint self-portraits; some people clone themselves using AI. How would you like to "preserve yourself" when you die?

Collabowriting

CORNUCOPIA WRITERS

Aim to be clear, imaginative, and engaging. Use the back of this sheet for planning. Assume your reader is tired. Outside resources are not allowed.

Name	ID				Signature
	1	2	3	A

Topic 1

☐ The Svalbard Global Seed Vault preserves seed samples in the event of a catastrophe. What is something else you would like to see preserved in a similar fashion, and why?
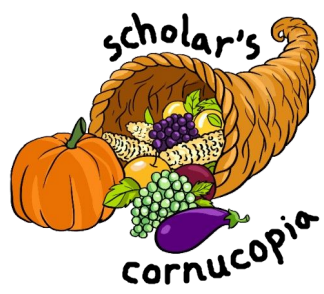

Topic 2

☐ If you could choose one person from history to give a speech to the whole world, who would you choose and why?

Topic 3

☐ What can we do to reignite the future?

Collabowriting

CORNUCOPIA WRITERS

Aim to be clear, imaginative, and engaging. Use the back of this sheet for planning. Assume your reader is tired. Outside resources are not allowed.

Name	ID				Signature
	1	2	3	A

☐ Topic 1

You wake up in your hometown a hundred years from now. What has changed?

☐ Topic 2

You are presented with a machine that can reincarnate you into someone else. Who would you want to be reincarnated as, and why?

☐ Topic 3

Many things fail at first before being reworked and finding great success. Is the successful version of something always the most important, or are the failed attempts just as significant?